

2013 Annual Meeting Luncheon

Our 2013 Annual Meeting Luncheon was held on March 28th, 2013 and we were pleased to have had 143 guests join us this year! A huge thank you to Lt. Governor Jerry Abramson for being our keynote speaker this year and for his inspiring words. Thank you also to the volunteers who helped with the organization and production of this event including United Way of Franklin County President Teresa Barton, 2012 & 2013 Campaign Chair Laura Leigh Goins, United Way Board Member Don Hamrick, Jane Sweasy and Ashley Welsh of Farmers Bank and Linda Roberts. Your time and commitment to United Way of Franklin County is invaluable. We would also like to thank Capital Plaza Hotel for your assistance and support during this year's event. Great job. We appreciate you!

Congratulations to all certificate recipients and award winners. You truly do exemplify what it means to LIVE UNITED! Thank you also to all organizations represented at this year's luncheon. We appreciate all you do to support United Way of Franklin County year round.

Last but not least, thank you to our 19 partner agencies who work tirelessly day in and day out to provide necessary services to our friends and neighbors. You're the reason why we do what we do and why our supporters do what they do. Thank you for all your hard work!
